

Job Opening: Structural Test EngineerDuties:

Respond to RFPs, review technical documents for testing requirements, research testing protocols, prepare testing program budgets, design testing apparatus when required, write testing procedures, fabricate specimens, perform static and dynamic testing of structural systems and components; conduct data processing and results analysis, prepare engineering reports, and providing technical consultation to clients. Report to Project Manager.

Requirements:

M. S. in structural engineering and/or civil engineering. Must have one year experience in performing structural testing related to reinforced concrete, structural steel, and advanced composites.

Send resume to:

John Latiolait, PE
Smith-Emery Laboratories,
781 East Washington Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90021.
Email: jlatiolait@smithemery.com
Fax: 213-741-8626